How We Will Work Together

I am so happy you have chosen to work with Escape Premium Travel. From the moment we spoke, our work together started a partnership – built on trust, clear communication, and thoughtful thinking on both our parts. My job is to design and manage the details of your trip, so the experience feels seamless, personal, and well considered from start to finish. Every trip should be shaped around the traveler, not the other way around. While plans can evolve, my responsibility is to anticipate your needs, speak on your behalf, and guide each decision with care. You will have a clear process, clear communication, and support before, during, and after your trip.

Your Part in the Process

To keep everything running smoothly, I will ask for accurate traveler information early on during the planning process – names as they appear on passports or IDs, dates of birth, loyalty numbers, and any preferences or considerations that help personalize your trip. Sharing these details with me promptly allows me to focus on what I do best: making your destination extraordinary with unforgettable experiences.

With your travel advisor, luxury means feeling supported every step of the way.

I create thoughtfully designed journeys for travelers who want their time away to feel effortless, meaningful, and beautifully planned. Through Escape Premium Travel, I partner with families, couples, and small groups to craft itineraries that bring together exceptional destinations, seamless logistics, and experiences chosen with purpose.

My role is to simplify the planning process while elevating the journey itself. From the right hotels and private guides to well-timed transfers and special moments along the way, each recommendation is selected with care and supported by trusted global partners. The result is travel that feels personal, polished, and fully considered from beginning to end.

Payments & Bookings

All travel components are booked according to each supplier's individual policies and timelines. Payments are handled securely and scheduled in alignment with supplier requirements – most often with final payment due 30 days prior to travel. You will receive clear invoices and reminders along the way, so nothing feels rushed or unclear.

Planning Fees

Thoughtful journeys begin with a thoughtful process. Designing a well-considered trip takes time, expertise, and attention to detail. There is no professional planning fee for my research, coordination, and care that go into creating a custom itinerary tailored to you. We do ask that once you ask for our services, you continue to use our services and book with us. The only fee I charge is assistance with flight only options.

Communication

Travel planning should feel calm and collaborative. You can expect thoughtful responses within 3-5 business days, during business hours, Monday through Saturday. While you are traveling, urgent matters always take priority – support is there when you need it most.

Care & Advocacy

I work with a carefully vetted network of trusted partners - airlines, hotels, guides, cruise lines, and tour operators—to ensure every element of your trip is thoughtfully selected and professionally managed. While some circumstances are beyond anyone’s control, my role is to advocate for you, navigate challenges calmly, and protect the integrity of your experience whenever plans need to adjust.

Changes & Cancellations

Travel plans can evolve. Each supplier maintains its own policies regarding changes and cancellations, which I will review with you before anything is confirmed. If adjustments are needed after booking, I will guide you through the options, outline any applicable fees, and handle the coordination so you do not have to.

Travel Insurance

Because travel insurance is an investment, insurance is strongly recommended for every journey. It provides a valuable safety net for the unexpected – health concerns, weather disruptions, delays or other interruptions. Should you choose to decline coverage, I will simply ask for a signed waiver acknowledging that decision.

Thoughtful guidance to keep everything moving smoothly

With the foundation now in place, the planning process begins to feel much more real. This checklist serves as your concierge guide—not a list of homework, but a clear and manageable roadmap designed to keep everything organized and moving forward.

Throughout the journey, I will continue to provide reminders, helpful recommendations, and guidance at each important stage. You will never be left to manage the details alone. Whether you prefer to follow every step closely or simply want the peace of mind of knowing everything is covered, this checklist will help you feel prepared and supported.

Before Booking:

- Review and sign your Client Agreement.
- If booking flight only options, you will submit a fee payment to begin that process.
- Provide full legal names as they appear on passports/IDs.
- Share passport copies with me on your client profile. (if traveling internationally)
- Provide traveler details: dates of birth, loyalty/rewards numbers, seating or cabin preferences.
- Confirm preferred payment methods for deposits and balances.

Once Your Trip is Confirmed:

- Add deposit and balance due dates to your calendar.
- Review cancellation and change policies provided for your trip.
- Decide whether you would like to purchase travel insurance (sign waiver if declining)
- Download and set up your itinerary app (Tern) to track your travel details.
- Verify entry requirements (visas, vaccination, etc.) for your destination.

Before You Depart

- Ensure passports/IDs are valid for at least 6 months beyond travel dates – bonus – I track that for my clients, so you never forget to renew.
- Review final itinerary and documents provided by Escape Premium Travel.
- Share special needs/preferences (dietary, accessibility, etc.) or phobias.
- Double-check flights, hotel confirmations, and transfers in your app.
- Arrange for home logistics (mail, pets, etc.) while you are away.
- Pack travel documents, insurance details, and credit cards in a safe place.

Staying Connected

Support should feel accessible, thoughtful, and well-timed.

Throughout the planning process – and while your traveling – I am here as your advisor and advocate. Clear communication helps me give every client the level of care they deserve, while ensuring you feel supported whenever it matters most.

How to Reach Me

Email is the best way to reach me for everyday questions, updates, and non-urgent requests. This allows me to respond thoughtfully and keep everything documented. You can expect a response within 24-48 during business hours, Monday through Saturday. When you are actively travelling, you will have access to my direct phone line for urgent matters such as flight disruptions, on the ground issues, or time sensitive concerns. In those moments, you are welcome to call or text, and I will prioritize your support. By reserving phone communication for true travel needs and using email for everything else, you help ensure I can focus my time where it matters most: protecting your trip, resolving challenges quickly, and continuing to design exceptional journeys.
